INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

“Freedom in The Mind, Faith in The Words, Pride In Our Souls”

On the occasion of Independence Day celebration the whole school took a festive look with students wearing tri-colour badges, wrist bands and waving tri-colour flags. The programme began with a 'Prabhat Pheri' in the vicinity of the school. The students carried the tricolours and a heart full of pride and love for their country with them. The national flag was hoisted and the march past was carried out. The cultural programme consisted of Saraswati Vandana, electrifying speeches, group dance and a medley of songs.

In their address to the children, Dr. Manan Budhraj, the Chairman and Mr. A. K. Bakshi, the Academic Director urged them to adopt the true meaning of freedom and independence i.e. to excel in the fields of education, discipline and profession. The entire experience was sublime and poignant for everyone attending it.

ROBIN HOOD ARMY -- HUNGER WARRIORS
