NOTE

17.11.2022

Dear Parent,

MDPS greetings!

This is the high time to catch up the academic fervor in the school after the festive season. It has been observed that these routine patches of discontinuity in regular schooling brings a casual approach in the execution of the disciplined norms amongst all of us. As law abiding cautious citizens, we need to maintain a proper check and balance. This will lead to better safety and security along with efficient output of all stake holders. Following points will help us to steer the school journey in right direction:

As the season is taking sharp twist, the students should switch over to the winter school uniform. Complete set of right attire reflects the confidence of the students.

Punctuality has no substitute. It is foundation to the self – discipline.

At the time of arrival in the morning, the parents who come to drop their respective wards, are requested to cooperate with the school security staff. Similarly, those who come to pick their children, at the time of dispersal but are also supposed to request the time line for the same. Early or before time reporting of the parents at times, become impediment in normal functioning.

As usual, we are confident that your rational hand holding will strengthen us in our endeavors.
